IN RE SEPTEMBER 11 PROPERTY DAMAGE AND BUSINESS LOSS LITIGATION

STIPULATION OF DISMISSAL WITHOUT PREJUDICE

WHEREAS, defendant Midwest Airlines, Inc. ("Midwest") represents that on September 11, 2001,

1. it did not utilize or operate out of any gates which required passengers to pass through (a) the Terminal C checkpoint at Boston Logan International Airport or (b) the checkpoint at the Portland International Jetport;
2. it did not provide or participate or share in providing security or contracting for the provision of security at or in connection with (a) the Terminal C checkpoint at Boston Logan International Airport, (b) the checkpoint at the Portland International Jetport, or (c) United Airlines Flight 175 or Colgan Air Flight 5930; and
3. there are no other remaining claims or cross-claims pending against it in 21 MC 97 or 21 MC 101 or any other actions pending against it in any court arising out of, relating to or resulting from the events of September 11, 2001;

IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED AND AGREED, by and between the undersigned attorneys of record for the respective parties hereto that the Cross-Claims by the Cross-Claim Plaintiffs World Trade Center Properties LLC, 2 World Trade Center LLC and 4 World Trade Center LLC ("WTCP Entities"), contained in the Cross-Claims by the WTCP Entities Against Certain Defendants In Plaintiffs' Amended Flight 175 Master Liability Complaint, against defendant Midwest, are hereby dismissed without prejudice and without costs to costs to either party as against the other.

WTCP Entities reserve the right to recommence their Cross-Claims if WTCP Entities learn facts which suggest that any representation recited in the first paragraph above is untrue. Midwest agrees that any such reinstatement of the Cross-Claims will relate back to the date of the original filing and that it will not assert a statute of limitations defense to the resiled claims.
